

Caste Class Distinction

Call it what you will—it is the outstanding and in-built characteristic of the Hats we are pleasing so many Pensacola men with this season.

True, you consider cost when selecting a companion for your head, and too, you please your fancy as well.

When you consider cost as well as looks, its a two-to-one bet that you'll make a "drive" for this hattery. We have all the new Autumn shades and shapes, in both rich velours and soft finish.

URGE EARLY MAILING CHRISTMAS BOXES

"Do Your Christmas Mailing Early" is slogan of the postoffice now, and is being stressed more than ever this year, as the many packages to the men in France cannot be delivered unless mailed before November 15th. In consequence of the vast number of packages that will probably be mailed to men stationed in the country, the mails will have a greater load than ever before, and Mr. Hancock urges all Pensacolians who intend sending a Christmas package to mail them now, and mark on them "Not to be opened until Christmas."

FOOTBALL GAME AT MAXENT THIS WORK

The football team of the Pensacola High School will play a second Pensacola team, the "Collegiates" in Maxent park Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. There will be no admission charges.

The High school played its first game last Monday against Palmer College, and defeated the visitors. Other games will be played with the DeFuniak eleven, and some with Barton Academy from Mobile. The High School will meet the Mobile team at Pensacola on Thanksgiving.

VERDICT AGAINST INSURANCE CO.

Verdict for $2,621.04, the face value of the policy under litigation was awarded the plaintiff in the case of Mrs. C. W. Linthicum vs. The Georgia Home Insurance Company of Columbus, Ga., in the circuit court yesterday. In the verdict the jury set the attorney fees for the plaintiff at $262.10, to be paid by the defendant. Watson and Pasco appeared for the plaintiff, while the defendant company was represented by Blount, Blount and Carter.

TERSELY TOLD

R. R. Jennings, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., left last night for Birmingham to attend a convention of secretaries and duly accredited representatives in working out the association's war work plans. He attends a gathering of Y. M. C. A. Men from Alabama and part of Florida, holding the proxy of E. R. Malone, resident member of the convention, who was prevented from making the trip at this time on account of business matters.

Don Day, one of the jovial student aviators from the Pensacola aero station, left last night for New York.

MINING REGIMENT MAY BE ORGANIZED

Washington, Oct. 18.—Organization of coal mining regiments from miners already in the national army for service in mines in France, is under consideration by Secretary Baker.

AMUSEMENTS

MARJORIE WILSON, IN TRIANGLE PLAY, "MOUNTAIN DEW."

WHAT YOU'LL SEE IN "REPUTATION" AT ISIS TODAY.

Vivid pictures of the gayest of gay Broadway cabarets in full blast.

The fascinating Hula Hula dance in its most fascinating form, staged by a buxom and shapely Hawaiian lass.

Small town scenes which will make the prodigal think of Thanksgiving dinner at home.

Edna Goodrich as a model, wearing many of the gowns from her newly acquired $50,000 wardrobe.

A thrilling court room scene.

A realistic battle between a healthy fighting girl and a man twice her size, in which furniture and bric-a-brac are smashed with utter disregard for existing high prices.

"THE HEART OF A HERO."

"Through all his imprisonment he bears himself with a manly nobility that wins for him even the enemy's love. One the eve of the execution, Alice bids him goodbye in a heart-rendering scene."

She is weeping as she does and you will be weeping with her when that point is reached in "The Heart of a Hero" which is a visualization of the life of Nathan Hale made by World Pictures and presenting Robert Warwick and Gail Kane.

This feature coming to the Isis theatre tomorrow has a special meaning to all those who have one little atom of love for America and the Stars and Stripes.

MARY PICKFORD'S SISTER

IN "ON THE LEVEL"

Lottie Pickford, "little" sister of Mary Pickford, in "On the Level," the Paramount picture starring Fannie Ward in which she is appearing at the Isis theatre Sunday, wears a motor coat and hat of unusual attraction. The coat is of heaviest velvet trimmed with bands of contrasting leather and seems almost to envelope the little figure of soft straw trimmed with a simple band of velvet and buttons, sets off to perfection her piquant beauty. Miss Lottie Pickford is dark haired and eyed, in sharp contrast to Mary. She is a star in her own right, and takes an important role in support of Miss Ward in this picture.

THIRD DRAFT MEN BEING EXAMINED

Comparatively little progress was made in the examination of men called in the third draft who reported yesterday for Dr. W. C. Dewberry was the only physician who reported to assist Dr. Andrews in examining the men. On this account only forty were examined and of these, 33 passed.

Others will report for examination this morning, and the four hundred must be completed at the earliest possible moment as their claims for exemption must be passed upon by the local and appeal boards before they can be sent off. It is hoped that more physicians will call at the offices, 3d floor Brent Building today, and help in examining the men. During the last two draft examinations, five or more doctors were always in attendance, and the work was completed quickly.

Following is the list of those who passed yesterday:

Lewis Corigliano, C. H. Mabrie, Sim R. Wallace, Lee Montgomery, A. M. Scherfins, Adrian Ballard, P. D.
